

Possible Agenda

Our typical agenda follows the schedule at the bottom of this page. Although we are flexible, we have found that a format along these lines works very well.

Also, because this show is improvisational in nature, we can not be specific on these times. Audience members can, (and will), take the show in various directions and that will affect times. We will however, make every attempt to stay close to the suggested time frame.

We do ask that while we are performing, no table service takes place. We have found that it splits focus, so we will not start until you are done pouring coffee, etc. and we ask that your servers do not re-enter the room until our actors have finished their “act”.

Tables should be set as closely as possible. If the audience does not “fill” the room, do not spread them out. Instead, bring the tables close together and leave about a 15 ft x 15 ft area in the middle for us to “act” in.

Note: “0:00pm” does not mean “noon”. Rather...is it the time your audience “begins” arriving in the banquet space.

0:00pm—doors open/parts are handed out (We suggest bread & butter, pretzels, etc. on table)

1:00pm – start of act I

1:30ish – end of Act I, set salads/pull empty salad plates

1:45ish – Start of Act II

2:15ish – end of Act II, set main course/pull empty main course plates/pour coffee

2:40ish – Start of Act III

3:15ish – Break to solve the crime/set deserts/coffee/drinks

3:25ish – reconvene and solve crime

3:30ish – show over/pull dessert plates.

Let us know how this will work for you?

“Looking for victims nationwide!”